

Special Areas

Thorough cleaning and disinfection of equipment reduces downtime and risks for all operators and users

Specific items and equipment that are unique to clinical environments such as aspirator/suction systems and dental impressions are all included within the Special Areas category.

In order to reduce the risk of infection for patients it is important that cleaning and disinfection take place regularly.

Correct care for these specialist items is vital to ensuring the safe and continuous use for both staff and patients.

Bossklein®

Complete hygiene solutions